

Conclusion

- HVDC is the future of UG and SM lines in association with converter technologies for long distance power transmission (1 to 2 GW)
- Jicable in Perpignan has been for three days the « center » of the world of HVDC :
 - Hundreds of experts and researchers discussed projects of hundreds of km, hundreds of kV and hundreds of M€.
- HVDC technologies are on the move rapidly and continuously and much is still to be done.